ATTN: Glenburn Township Tax Payers

If your mailing address has changed, even if the change was the result of the Glenburn Township Addressing Project (changes made so that homes are more easily located by Emergency Medical Service (EMS)), you must send the new address, along with your property PIN # (more on this below) to Mr. Gino Mori (570-963-6728 X1621) at the Lackawanna County Tax Assessor Office:

Via mail (United States Postal Services):

State that this is a mailing address change, include your PIN # and send it to:

Mr. Gino Mori
Lackawanna County Tax Assessor Office
135 Jefferson Avenue
Scranton, PA 18503

Via FAX

State that this is a mailing address change, include your PIN # and fax it to:

570-963-6385
Attn: Gino Mori

The PIN # of your property is on your tax bill, in the upper right hand corner, under the Bill #.

Again: address changes, even township mandated changes, do not automatically get communicated to the Lackawanna County Tax Assessor Office. You must notify them of your new address.
